For Universities & Young People

The Creative Truth gives participants the practical tools, confidence, and creative vocabulary to make original theatre · and tell their own stories.

Choose one module, a combination, or book the full series — each session builds on the last.

THE IMPROVISED SCRIPT

Developing responsiveness, active listening, and the ability to generate performance from spontaneous dialogue.

TRUTHFUL PERFORMANCE

Authenticity, presence, and precision — participants develop honest, embodied performances with clear intention.

CREATING THEATRE FROM EXPERIENCE

Transforming lived experience into original theatrical material using professional devising tools.

MAKING MEANING IN PERFORMANCE

How space, movement, and staging shape audience interpretation — theatre that communicates beyond text.

Student Outcomes

Participants will strengthen improvisation and ensemble skills, build confidence generating original material, develop performance structure understanding, and gain insight into professional devising practice.
